• THE PROBLEM

Every day, your leftover food costs you.

Restaurants, bakeries, cafés, and supermarkets lose thousands every year discarding perfectly good food that simply didn't sell in time. That's lost revenue, wasted labour, and unnecessary environmental damage - all at once.

20–30%

of prepared food goes unsold daily

Rs 1M+

lost per outlet
per year in surplus

2.5 kg

CO2 saved per bag
diverted from waste

Grabengo: Your surplus, someone's meal.

A two-sided marketplace connecting businesses with surplus food to local customers at reduced prices. You earn revenue. They eat well. The planet wins.
